Organized by: Senior 3rd semester Nursing Students

Participants: Nursing First Semester Students, Faculty Members, and Staff

The Freshers' Party for Nursing First Semester students was organized with great enthusiasm to warmly welcome the newly admitted students into the nursing fraternity. The programme aimed to create a friendly atmosphere, promote interaction between seniors and juniors, and help the freshers feel comfortable in their new academic environment.

The programme commenced with a formal welcome of the chief guest Dr. Sharad Chandra wankhede sir vice chancellor of Amaltas University and invited dignitaries and freshers, followed by the lighting of the lamp and an inaugural address by the Dr. Sangeeta Tiwari Principal of Amaltas Institute of Nursing Sciences. In the address, students were encouraged to maintain discipline, uphold the values of the nursing profession, and actively participate in both academic and extracurricular activities.

A variety of cultural programme were presented by senior students, including songs, dances, skits, and games, which added joy and excitement to the event. Ice-breaking sessions and fun activities were arranged to boost the confidence of first semester students and encourage their participation. The freshers enthusiastically introduced themselves and showcased their talents, making the programme lively and memorable.

One of the highlights of the programme was the selection of Mr. Fresher and Ms. Fresher, Mr. Confidence and Ms. Confidence, Mr. Swag and Ms. Swag, based on confidence, creativity, and overall performance. The winners were felicitated with titles and prizes. Faculty members appreciated the efforts of the students for organizing such a well-coordinated event.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the management, faculty members, organizing committee, and all participants for their cooperation and support. Overall, the Freshers' Party was a grand success and left a lasting impression on the new students, marking a joyful beginning of their nursing education journey.
